Opportunity

The Isle of Man is a place where people and business will find the right environment in which to reach their full potential. Excellent financial and taxation benefits, effective collaboration and partnership between public and private sectors and world class connectivity means the Isle of Man is an outstanding location in which to do business, allowing you freedom to flourish. The Isle of Man has a culture of innovation spanning centuries which means we empathise with the entrepreneurial spirit and offer it the opportunity to flourish. Residents of the Isle of Man are either happy or very happy with the Isle of Man as a place to live. With little commuting, diverse career opportunities, low personal taxes, very low crime rate and a distinctive culture the quality of life on the Isle of Man is high. The Island also prides itself on being a caring society and offers excellent standards in both health care and education.The Island also has an established reputation for events, particularly motor-sport and the internationally recognised TT Races. But the Island is increasingly becoming well-known as a centre of sporting excellence in other areas such as cycling and football, testament to the excellent sports facilities that are located here. The opportunities for hiking and walking are superb given that that the Isle of Man is an area of outstanding natural beauty. For the less energetic, there's 10,000 years of history to explore presented under the 'Story of Mann' banner by Manx National Heritage. Attractions range from the award-winning House of Manannan in Peel - an interactive heritage centre on the west coast presenting the Isle of Man's Celtic, Viking and maritime history - to museums and medieval castles. In addition to the 600 miles of quiet roads, the Island's Victorian railway systems also present a wonderful way to explore the Isle of Man. REFRESHINGLY

ISLE OF MAN RECRUITMENT

EPL is one of the markets leading recruitment consultancies on the Isle of Man providing both candidates and clients with a different kind of recruitment. Working with many of the biggest employers on the Island and in the UK, no-one offers better individual advice and support for people changing or seeking jobs. We're looking for the right candidates for expanding businesses all the time, but our efforts on your behalf can start long before we put your name forward. You may have a clear idea of the job you want - even the people you want to work for. You might have no more than a sense your prospects could be more exciting. Maybe you're thinking of temping or working part-time, whatever, you'll find us keen to listen and advise. Once you have registered with EPL Recruitment you'll have access to a team of professionally accredited advisers committed to matching you with your ideal role. Whether you are a graduate, a seasoned professional, or just someone looking for a career change, EPL Recruitment can provide the advice and know-how you need to move your career forward in the right direction. With a host of high-profile client companies on our books, we'll ensure that your next move is the right one.

FINANCE At EPL Recruitment we specialise in providing temporary, contract and permanent opportunities from junior / trainee roles to board-level / senior appointments across the finance sector and associate businesses. Our recruitment team has genuine real-life experience as well as being qualified through industry specialists such as the Recruitment and Employment Confederation and The Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development. It is this level of experience plus the training we provide that sets us apart from our competitors. Our network of offices and our proven methods of attracting applicants, coupled with access to one of the largest industry databases available, means we are able to search, identify and place the most suitable candidates available.

TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT At EPL Recruitment we currently deal with a large volume of temporary business and employment opportunities ranging from clients who require staff for just 1 day to those who have ongoing assignments. Employers require temporary staff to cover anything from sickness or holiday periods or even as a short-term solution whilst they search for a permanent employee. Although temping can be both challenging and very different it is also a chance to perhaps work around an ever changing lifestyle. Many individuals prefer to temp for a number of reasons, whether it is that they enjoy the flexibility and variety of working in many different companies, or perhaps those who are returning to work after raising a family. Perhaps you have recently returned from a period of travel after a career break or are unemployed and looking for permanent employment. Whatever your reasons for temping EPL Recruitment has a contract that will suit your needs. Our client companies range from high-profile blue chip organisations to independent businesses with small teams of dedicated individuals. We strive to match our candidates with positions that best suit their needs, skills and experience, so you can walk into your next appointment confident that you'll bring something to the role, no matter how long you work there for. And once you've decided that you're ready to take the next step in your career, the highly qualified team at EPL Recruitment will be there to guide you every step of the way. If you would like to register for temporary employment please register your details via the register page on our website and we will contact you to arrange an appointment to come in to discuss your requirements further.
