TRAINING OPTIONS - Online Certified Instructor courses Swimsanity® have two options to train online and via video submission: Swimsanity® Aqua HIIT Instructor Training Online Course (UK Only) with Equipment This program is a cost effective, yet exciting workout that really work's. Perfect for Individual's wanting to create their own business and classes. Leisure operators with multiple sites and limited storage space for equipment and a budget to adhere to. Swimsanity® Aqua HIIT Instructor Training Online Course (Worldwide) without Equipment This is the same teachings and certification as our HIIT course, except without the included equipment. This allows us to bring the cost down by 50% to you, but give you the flexibility to source your own equipment or deliver the workout, equipment free. Both are ideal for those wanting to start ASAP. Online training can commence immediately
