Accountancy Awards is aimed at honouring top class performance and innovation across the accountancy industry in the region. Our aim is to put the spotlight on the companies that are embracing innovation and positively transforming the world of accountancy. We are bringing together like-minded, forward-thinking individuals and firms who are striving to be the best at everything they do while celebrating the greatest contributions to the profession and inspiring it to even greater heights.

The awards dinner attracts over 200 guests, made up of finalists, judges, sponsors, accountants, finance workers and business people. The prestigious ceremony not only offers numerous networking opportunities throughout but will provide an outstanding occasion to recognise and reward the many achievements that continues to be made in our industry. Guests also enjoy a three course meal and entertainment. This award night presents an excellent opportunity to promote brand awareness and enable expanding thought leadership. It further recognises the work undertaken by local business people. Those working in this profession enter the Accountancy Awards to show their peers and their employees how hard everyone has worked within the year to deliver success. Being an award winning business carries weight when it comes to networking and attracting new clients. Being shortlisted can help with company credibility. Winning an award then acts as a seal of approval from your peers and will give potential clients peace of mind.

Our aim with Accountancy Awards is to be widely recognised as the Oscars of the accountancy sector in the Isle of Man and attract hundreds of nominations and award entries that exemplify the talent, dedication and innovation of individuals and teams across all aspects of accountancy life, showing us countless reasons why our institutions continue to prosper.
